The Prosecuting Attorney presented the following communication, in response to a resolution of this board:

Office Prosecuting Attorney Wash. Co.,
October 23rd, 1865.

To Hon. Jas. McMahon, Chairman Board of Supervisors:

The following Resolved. That the prosecuting Attorney be requested to instruct this board, in writing, as to the duties of the several Supervisors in the assessment of the real and personal property of corporations formed under any special or general law of this State for manufacturing purposes, having been certified to me as passed by the board of Supervisors, I have the honor to submit the following:

Section 785, C. L., provides that "all property of private corporations, except in cases when some other provision is made by law, shall be assessed in the name of the corporation in the township or ward where the same shall be situated." And Sec. 795, C. L., requires "every full age firm body politic or corporation" is set forth in writing to the Supervisors a correct description to all the property personal and real, held or owned by them not required to pay a specific tax, and not exempt by law from taxation; and Sec. 993, C. L., expressly exempts any person from including in such statement any share or portion of the capital stock of any company or corporation, which corporation is required to pay a special tax by law to the state, or whose corporate property is subject to taxation under Sec. 785, C. L. The law formerly provided for the payment of certain manufacturing companies of a specific tax (C. L. Sec. 1818), to the State of one-half of one per cent in lieu of all other State taxes, &c., but Act No. 21, in the session laws of 1865, amends Sec. on 1819, C. L., repealing the specific tax of certain manufacturing companies, but providing that they shall be liable to be assessed for "all real and personal estate held by them, and that they shall pay thereon a tax for Township, City, County and State purposes," the same as other personal and real estate, and that the act might not be misconstrued, it expressly provides that nothing therein contained shall authorize the taxing the capital stock of such corporations as such capital stock. It is manifest that at the passage of this amendatory act, the Legislature not only did not intend to make shares or capital stock taxable, but understood that they were not already taxable. It is clear then, by the provisions of amendatory section Act 21 Laws 1865, and Section 785, C. L. that the property of private corporations (that is corporations organized for manufacturing and other purposes) who do not pay a specific tax is liable to taxation in the township or ward where the same is situated, and it is equally clear that the words property of private corporations means such property, personal and real as is held by them in their corporate capacity, and not the stock or shares thereof held or owned by individuals.

From the provision of law above cited, and from a careful examination of former legislation, and the law now in force, I am of opinion that shares of stock of any corporation for manufacturing purposes or otherwise, (in the hands of individuals) which corporation is required by law to pay a specific tax to the State or which owns personal or real property subject to taxation is not taxable, and the Supervisors in such cases should not assess to individual stock holders the stock or shares held by them.

There are, however, certain other organizations and corporations, members and stockholders of which live in the county, some of which are stockholders of corporations organized under the laws of other States, and derive no local corporate capacity from the laws of the State of Michigan, and which corporations do not come under any of the legal exemptions before cited, and in such cases I am of opinion that stock thereof in the hands of individuals is subject to taxation under the laws of this State making stock of foreign corporations taxable. But the class of companies or organizations (organized under the laws of this State) having no corporate property here upon which a tax can be levied are nevertheless subject to taxation upon their personal and real property, and I am inclined to the opinion that the fact of such corporations having no property to be found by the Supervisors does not render the shares or stock of such corporations any the more taxable, and in my opinion, such stocks even are not taxable, although I confess this last proposition is not free from doubt.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

AMOS C. BLODGET,
Prosecuting Atty.

On motion, the communication was accepted and ordered entered on the journal.

Mr. Sheldon, from the committee on the Volunteer Relief Fund, reported as follows:

The committee on the Volunteer Relief Fund would recommend that the County Treasurer be authorized to loan a sum on county bonds, not exceeding $10,000, for the purpose of paying Volunteer Relief orders, at a rate of interest not exceeding seven per cent, said bonds and interest payable February 1st, 1867.

A Deserved Tribute.
The Normal School pupils and Alumni have presented a noble tribute to Prof. A. S. Welch who has so long and ably filled the position of Principal of the State Normal School. Mr. Welch closed his labors in connection with the institution this week and expects to leave us for Florida to-day. Desirous of showing their teacher some tangible expression of esteem, the students and some of the graduates have purchased a valuable testimonial embracing several books of a high order and splendidly bound. The presentation was made in the chapel at the close of session Thursday last. Mr. Pierce of the Senior class in a brief but eloquent address told the heartfelt motives and emotions of the givers, their regret at parting with one who had secured so large a measure of their affection, whom they had so long known as a friend and instructor. Prof. Welch responded with much feeling. He could not bid his pupils farewell by a speech. He would as soon think of doing this with his own household friends. Words would fail to express how much he prized this gift coming from those in whose welfare he was so deeply interested. The sad parting hour was alleviated and even rendered cheerful by the reflection that he had left behind not an enemy. He had labored to gain the affections of his pupils. And at the close of his labors he was profoundly gratified to know that his efforts had been crowned with success. He recounted his experience the last twenty-five years as a teacher and especially in the Normal which is so largely indebted to his untiring zeal and devotion. He bestowed the most unbounded commendation upon the faithful teachers who so successfully toiled with him. He tendered his gratitude to the Board of Education for the manner in which shouldered to shoulder they had stood with him in the accomplishment of the work. He had expended his best energies to the building up of the Normal School and now as failing health obliged him to discontinue sedentary pursuits he should ever cherish the consciousness that his life work was done here. Many a moist eye told the parting emotions of speaker and audience. The present consists of the following books: "The Iconographic Encyclopedia." Six volumes, handsomely bound, containing 1,500 finely engraved plates. "Lights and Shadows of N. Y. Picture Galleries." 40 Photographs of paintings lifelike and taking and captivatingly bound. "Pleasures of Memory" selections from poetry and prose, splendidly illustrated with engravings. Total value not far from $200. Each volume contains an inscription executed in skillful penmanship by Mr. Parsons of "The Fine Art Gallery," as follows: "Presented to Prof. A. S. Welch by the students and graduates of the Mich. State Normal School as a token of affection and esteem for their Principal." The Normal Faculty also presented Mr. Welch at a social party on Wednesday evening at the residence of Prof. Ripley a handsome service of silver plate valued at nearly $150.

Union S. S. County Convention.
Convened at the Presbyterian Church, on Monday evening last. Dr. Hogarth of Detroit gave the opening address. It was very attractive and instructive. The subject was—"The best method of conducting a Sabbath School." He urged strongly the necessity of Normal Schools to prepare teachers for their important work in the Sunday School. There were three excellent essays delivered. Prof. Cary delivered an Essay on the method of interesting the infantile classes. Prof. Adams of the University on the essentials required to retain the youth in the Sunday School. He would give them something to think of. Not confine them to the same lesson given the smaller children. Prof. Olney read an Essay on the difficulties to be surmounted in our Sunday School work. Mr. Potter, who has been a successful missionary, reported some valuable statistics. The whole number of children in the county between five and twenty, 11,900; attendance upon the Day School 9,010; average attendance on Sunday Schools 5,500. The attendance upon M. E. Church Schools is 1,364—Baptist 690—Presbyterian over 600—Congregational over 700—Union Sunday Schools over 1,000—Episcopalians over 300. We have not the exact figures for the four latter, but state them from memory. There are 103 Schools in the county. City and town of Ypsilanti 1,051 pupils. The town of Salem shows remarkably well—400 scholars. Mr. Potter has organized the past season 15 new schools.

A Novelty.
We saw a white con in front of McLachlin and Harburt store the other day. The first we ever saw—a beauty. By the way the furs of this firm were burned up by the late fire in Detroit they have been awarded damages and received a large stock of furs.

CURRENT EVENTS.

The death of Lord Palmerston, a veteran office holder, for 60 years, as a foreign diplomat unexcelled, has caused quite a sensation in England. Though upwards of 80 he had a strong hold upon the people, and they had no thought that the man who had lived in public service so many years could die. But the mighty fall beneath the tread of the great conqueror.

"Princes, this clay must be your bed
In spite of all your towers,
The tall, the wise, the reverend head,
Must lie as low as ours."

Rebel pardoning is said to be suspended by the President. The administration is reducing expenses as rapidly as possible. It is thus gaining the approval of the people. Though a large part of indebtedness has had to be paid over to the returning soldiers, the National Debt has been already reduced $20,000,000. Thank God, the turning point has been reached, and if our Heavenly Father will vouchsafe us as large a crop as we have harvested this year for ten years to come, the National Debt will be swept out of existence. —100 general officers are about to be mustered out. Good. An infernal machine was left in the Wyoming hotel, N. Y. city, which exploded and seriously injured 22 persons. The box was brought from Hamburg and contained chemical oils. —We must confess that National matters present a better appearance. The President takes the manly ground that the reconstructing States must repudiate the southern debt, state and confederate—must also adopt the constitutional amendment prohibiting slavery, and secure protection to the freedmen, before they can be admitted into the Union. —The Cholera has reached our shores. It came in the steamer Atlanta. Over 40 died on the passage. The vessel is now near N. Y. in quarantine. Deaths are daily occurring. It is the duty of EVERY FAMILY to take sanitary measures at once. Make everything about your house and out houses wholesome and clean. We trust our city authorities will at once act and not wait until this fast traveling pestilential scourge is upon us. —Look out for $50 treasury notes in circulation—said to be an excellent imitation. —Wiz was hanged yesterday. Every man who is not at heart a traitor, will say amen. Had this horrible monster ten thousand lives, the last of them would not balance the frightful catalogue of his murdered Union prisoners of war. —The President tells a delegation of ladies, who presented a petition of 15,000 women, (she rebels) seeking his executive clemency in behalf of Jeff. Davis, that complete arrangements have been made for an early legal trial according to the laws of the land. —The secession party has elected the Governor in North Carolina. —The bogus Union party has triumphed in Louisiana.

The N. Y. Tribune thus reports the magnificent Republican majority of 27,000 in N. Y., 20,000 greater than last fall.

We carry the State by about 3,000. It went for McClellan last fall 8,000 majority. In Wisconsin we sweep the State—Carry Minnesota overwhelmingly. —West Virginia ditto. In Maryland four out of five Judges—and a member of Congress. —In Massachusetts the sham Democracy don't poll 25,000 votes. The radical General Banks is elected to Congress. From Maine to California and close by the resounding shores of Oregon, go up the glad hallduells of Republican triumphs. —The sham Democratic party has completely collapsed. As it was with the term Federal after the last war, so with the name Democrat, it will henceforth be a stretch in the nostrils of the American people. And let lovers of truth and justice, and liberty the world over, shout, AMEN!
